

BIG ERNIE'S NEW HOME

A Story for Children Who Are Moving

SAMPLE PAGES - NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION and Whitney Martin
© American Psychological Association

In an old house, on a steep hill,
there once lived a very brave cat.
His name was Ernie.
Everyone called him Big Ernie.

Big Ernie lived with a little boy named Henry.
Every morning Little Henry made Big Ernie a delicious tuna breakfast.
And after breakfast, they always went for their morning adventure.
Even when it rained in winter.

Big Ernie was not scared of anything.
Not even flying dragons.

One time he even rode in a cable car.

Big Ernie was very happy.
He was happy until one especially foggy morning,
when Little Henry said,
“We aren’t taking a walk today, Big Ernie.
It’s time to put our toys in boxes.
Today we’re moving to a new home.”

