

To my mom for always being there for me. I love you!
- Julia Cook

To my three little verbs, Sophia, Abigail, & Jack.
- Carrie Hartman

Duplication and Copyright

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording or otherwise without prior written permission from the publisher except for all worksheets and activities which may be reproduced for a specific group or class. Reproduction for an entire school or school district is prohibited.

P.O. Box 22185
Chattanooga, TN 37422-2185
423.899.5714 • 800.477.8277
fax: 423.899.4547
www.ncyi.org

ISBN: 978-1-931636-84-1
© 2008 National Center for Youth Issues, Chattanooga, TN
All rights reserved.

Written by: Julia Cook
Illustrations by: Carrie Hartman
Published by National Center for Youth Issues
Softcover

Printed in Mexico

My name is Louis

People say that I am a verb.

That's because I'm always doing something.

The problem is that most of the time,
I end up doing the wrong "something."

“You can change, said my mom. All you have to do is learn how to focus.”

“I try and I try, I said to my mom, but I just can’t do it.”

“I think I know how to help you,” said my mom.

First of all, whenever you know you are going to have to sit still for a while, wiggle your wiggles before they wiggle you.”

“What does that mean?”
I asked.

“Scratch your knees.

Wiggle your toes.

Stretch your skin.

Crinkle your nose.

Shake your elbows.

Bend at the waist.

Dance in a circle,

And scrunch up your face!

You be in charge of all wiggles at large.

Wiggle them first so they can't make you BURST!”