

GROW HAPPY

by Jon Lasser, PhD, and Sage Foster-Lasser
illustrated by Christopher Lyles

My name is Kiko.

I'm a gardener.

I grow happy.

Let me show you how.

I can grow happiness
by making good choices.

First, I choose a spot for planting.
Not here—Chico might dig up the garden.

Not here.
That's where my brother plays with his friends.

I'll plant it here.
The ground is soft
and there's plenty of sun.

Next, I pull the weeds.

Dig some holes.

Plant the seeds.

And sprinkle the water.

Look, it's starting to grow!

GROW HAPPY

My name is Kiko. I'm a gardener.
I grow happy. Let me show you how.

Kiko shows the reader how she grows happiness: by making good choices, taking care of her body and mind, paying attention to her feelings, problem solving, and spending time with family and friends.

Kids will learn that they can play a pivotal role in creating their own happiness, just like Kiko.

A Note to Parents and Other Caregivers provides more strategies for helping children learn how to grow happiness.
